

World Wide Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary 15th August, 2021

Solemn Pontifical Mass in the ruins of Nagasaki Cathedral, 1949

Suggestions from Fr. Z's website to prepare for the consecration:

- ⇒ Novena Prayer to St. Ann
- ⇒ Say a Memorare each day and perform some type of penance each week
- ⇒ Prayer Maximillian Kolbe composed

All Catholic communities and individuals faithful to the Traditional Latin Mass are invited to join together in a world wide corporate consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, on the feast of Our Lady's Assumption, Sunday 15th August, 2021.

In this grave hour, with confidence let us entrust to the Immaculate Heart of Mary ourselves, our families, our communities, the traditional Latin Mass, the Holy Catholic Church, and Russia.

The formula proposed for this Consecration may be found at:

(The form of the consecration is included at the end of the booklet)

This information can all be found at Fr. Z's blog, outlined in this post:

I ask St Ann to:

Soften the hearts of all those who will now be involved with the implementation of Traditionis custodes.

I will ask Ann to “guard the guards”.

Say this each day.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Glorious St. Anne, we think of you as filled with compassion for those who invoke you and with love for those who suffer. Heavily laden with the weight of my troubles, I cast myself at your feet and humbly beg of you to take the present affair which I commend to you under your special protection

Deign to commend it to your daughter, our Blessed Lady and lay it before the throne of Jesus, so that He may bring it to a happy conclusion. Cease not to intercede for me until my request is granted. Above all, obtain for me the grace of one day beholding my God face to face. With you and Mary and all the saints, may I praise and bless Him for all eternity. Amen.

Good St Anne, mother of her who is our life, our sweetness and our hope, pray for me.

Say 1: Our Father...

Say 1: Hail Mary...

Say 1: Glory Be...

Who will join me in this Novena?

MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence,
I fly unto thee,
O Virgin of virgins,
my mother; to thee
do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

Let us ask for graces through the intercession of St. Maximilian, not to become bitter toward those who would snuff us out of the Church or force us into an artificial unity created in their own likeness.

O Immaculata, Queen of Heaven and earth, refuge of sinners and our most loving Mother, God has willed to entrust the entire order of mercy to you. I, (name), a repentant sinner, cast myself at your feet, humbly imploring you to take me with all that I am and have, wholly to yourself as your possession and property. Please make of me, of all my powers of soul and body, of my whole life, death and eternity, whatever most pleases you.

If it pleases you, use all that I am and have without reserve, wholly to accomplish what was said of you: "She will crush your head," and "You alone have destroyed all heresies in the whole world." Let me be a fit instrument in your immaculate and merciful hands for introducing and increasing your glory to the maximum in all the many strayed and indifferent souls, and thus help extend as far as possible the blessed kingdom of the most Sacred Heart of Jesus. For wherever you enter you obtain the grace of conversion and growth in holiness, since it is through your hands that all graces come to us from the most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

V. Allow me to praise you, O Sacred Virgin

R. Give me strength against your enemies

Amen

Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Feast of the Assumption, 15 August 2021

O Immaculata, Mother of God, Mother of the Church, we come to thee in this bleak hour. The forces of evil, enemies of thy beloved Son, rear their heads with overweening audacity. Our families are under relentless attack, the unborn are slaughtered by the millions, our children are scandalised and corrupted, vice is glorified and sanctioned by law, our most fundamental liberties are being speedily curtailed. Good is now called evil, and evil good (Cf. Is 5:20). Nor is this lamentable situation confined to the secular world. In our beloved Church, founded by thy Divine Son, the cause of Truth and Justice is often brushed aside; priests who stand up for the moral law are silenced and besmirched; religious communities devoted to traditional observance are pressed to compromise or written off as outdated; the Sacred Liturgy handed down by Tradition is under overt attack. In this hour of fierce trial and impending persecution, we entrust to thee our woes. Thou hast assured us that, in the end, thy Immaculate Heart would triumph. This promise consoles us, and we are ever mindful that we must make ourselves worthy of such a victory by the sanctity of our lives. Our Lady of Victories, on this day, as we honour thy glorious victory over death and look up with joy to the eternal crown of victory which rests upon thy beloved head, we are filled with confidence that thou dost not forget thy beloved sons and daughters, still labouring in sorrow in this vale of tears.

At Fatima thou didst request that the entire world, and especially Russia, should be consecrated to thy Immaculate Heart. As we look around us, it is all too clear that the errors of Communism have indeed spread throughout the world through the tentacles of atheistic cultural Marxism; our societies live more and more as if there were no God. We are saddened by the plight of our beloved Church in which prominent Catholics are allowed with impunity to reject the most formal teachings of our faith without condemnation and even with approval, while faithful Catholics who defend the moral law and cleave to the sacred rites and traditions of our Fathers are forced to the margins. In this hour, Most Powerful Virgin, each one of us approaches with filial confidence thy Immaculate and Maternal Heart. United together with all Catholic communities around the world who are attached to Tradition, we consecrate to thee ourselves, our families, our communities, our priests, our bishops, our Holy Father the Pope, and the whole world. Following thy command, we consecrate especially Russia to thy Immaculate Heart. We entrust to thy maternal intercession all those whose lives and whose souls are in danger: the unborn, the youth, the elderly, the weak and handicapped, the persecuted and the slandered, the famished souls who search in vain for the clarity of truth and the purity of divine worship. We ask thee to look down with thy merciful eyes and to save one and all.

In a very special way, we consecrate to thee all the priests and faithful who remain devoted to the Mass of Ages as it was handed down to us by an unbroken and immemorial Tradition, forever immortalised by Pope St Pius V. We ask thee to protect every priest in whose heart thou hast sown the resolve to remain faithful to the Traditional Latin Mass, to give him the grace and the courage to stand firm in the midst of whatever persecution he may have to undergo. We entrust to thee all the traditional religious communities and societies of apostolic life, that they may be unshakeable in fidelity to their charism, immoveable in their dedication to doing the truth in charity (cf. Eph 4:15) for the glory of God and the salvation of souls. O Woman clothed with the sun, upon whose head rests a crown of twelve stars and under whose feet lies the moon – symbol of change and instability – (cf. Apoc 12:1), abandon us not in this hour which we know is thy hour. Spread thy immaculate mantle over each of us, our families and communities, and protect us from all harm. Keep us ever faithful to the practice of the true faith and to the Mass of our Fathers. Lead us to that heavenly home where, with thee and all the angels and saints, we may forever be the Praise of the Glory of the Most Holy Trinity (Cf. Eph 1:12). Amen.

Sub tuum praesidium...
